

2010 Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley

Appellations: Walla Walla Valley, Yakima Valley,
Wahluke Slope

Grapes: 80% Cabernet Sauvignon, 9% Cabernet Franc,
5% Petit Verdot, 5% Carmenere, 2% Malbec

Vintage Season: cool spring and summer, moderate autumn with extended ripening period, low yields

Time in Cellar : Open top fermenters, with 17 months in American, European and French Oak,
25% new. Bottled March 2012

Aroma: Red and black fruits, graham, licorice

Taste: Plum, red currant, warm spice, smooth tannins

Alcohol: 14.2%

Lot Size: 1980 cases produced

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

The 2010 vintage benefits from a diverse, complimentary set of vineyard sites within the Columbia Valley. Beautifully balanced with a fresh fruit, lively mid palate and lingering finish. Enticing aroma of graham, red plum and red berry. Bright red currant by mouth with ripe, sweet plum overtones and spicy oak notes.

Casey McClellan / Winemaker

212 North Third Avenue • Walla Walla, WA 99362
Tel: (509) 529-7198 / Fax: (509) 529-7733
www.sevenhillswinery.com

SEVEN HILLS